The nonprofit Agriculture and Land-Based Training Association is inviting the public to honor 26 graduates of the 2011 Farmer Education Program at noon on Saturday, July 9.

The keynote speaker is Juan Uranga, executive director of the Center for Community Advocacy.

The event will take place at the Rural Development Center located at 1700 Old Stage Road near Salinas.

The Farmer Education Program is taught as a bilingual course over six months.

It provides both beginning farmers and farmers with some experience with classroom instruction and practical in-field workshops.
